1,200 Grade School Musicians Attend District Band Contest Here

Approximately 1,200 Junior high and grade school musicians, representing 19 schools, were in Harrisburg Friday for the district band contest.

The Harrisburg band played first, at 8 a. m. and the contest continued until about 5 p. m. Members of the Harrisburg band worked throughout the day as guides for the visitors.

The bandmen, their directors and chaperones came to Harrisburg in school buses and private automobiles and parking was at a premium for several blocks in the neighborhood of the Junior high school.

All contest numbers were played from the big stage in the auditorium. Plans had been made to accommodate eight bands at a time and the "pipe line" plans appeared to work perfectly.

As the bands arrived they were directed to the boys' gymnasium, which had been divided into five "home rooms." There the bandmen unpacked their instruments, had last minute conferences with the directors and prepared to move on to the Little Theater for practice. Then they moved to the girls' gymnasium and from that point were called to the stage of the auditorium to play their contest music.

On completion of their contest music, members returned to their home room, packed their instruments and were requested to take the instruments to their bus.

All of the bands waited until their rating was announced and some stayed for the entire day. There were novelty souvenir and refreshment stands and the cafe.

About Town

And Country

By TIMOTHEUS T.

MAIL: Timotheus received a letter from Mrs. Travis Gannon of 619 West Sloan street in regard to the West Harrisburg drainage ditch.

"As our city approaches the date of our 'clean-up-our-city' campaign which will be next week, I thought this would be a good time to write a letter on the deplorable condition of the drainage ditch in west Harrisburg," Mrs. Gannon began.

"We have lived on Sloan street for almost seven years now, and never, during this time, has the ditch been cleaned out," she continued. "However, we understand that a year or so prior to that time, property owners paid, out of their own pockets, to have the ditch cleaned out."

After telling of the money and manpower spent on the ditch near her home, she pointed to "a much more important angle than even the unsanitary, unhealthy and unsightly part, and that is the safety angle."

"As you know, the ditch is a wide open one. Taylor Field is

Bible Authority To Address County Society

Albert Malone of the Dallas area community near Harrisburg will be the principal speaker at the Saline County Historical Society meeting on Tuesday, in the Mitchell-Carnegie Library at 7:30 p. m.

The subject of his talk will be "The Historical Background of the Jordan River and the Land of Palestine as Related To Our Present Day Religion."

The speaker, who is a life long resident of Saline county, is an authority on Bible history, Hebrew and Egyptian history. He teaches the adult Bible class of the North America Baptist church and reads the Bible through an average of five times a year. He believes that the key to many Biblical questions lies in the valley of the Jordan River, and that the archaeologists who are excavating this valley will make many discoveries of great importance to our present day religion.

Mr. Malone expects to be a contestant on the T-V Quiz Show, "64,000 Question," within the next year. He has already completed the preliminary questionnaires and was interviewed by telephone from New York at which time he was advised that he may be called to appear in New York for a personal interview within six months or a year.

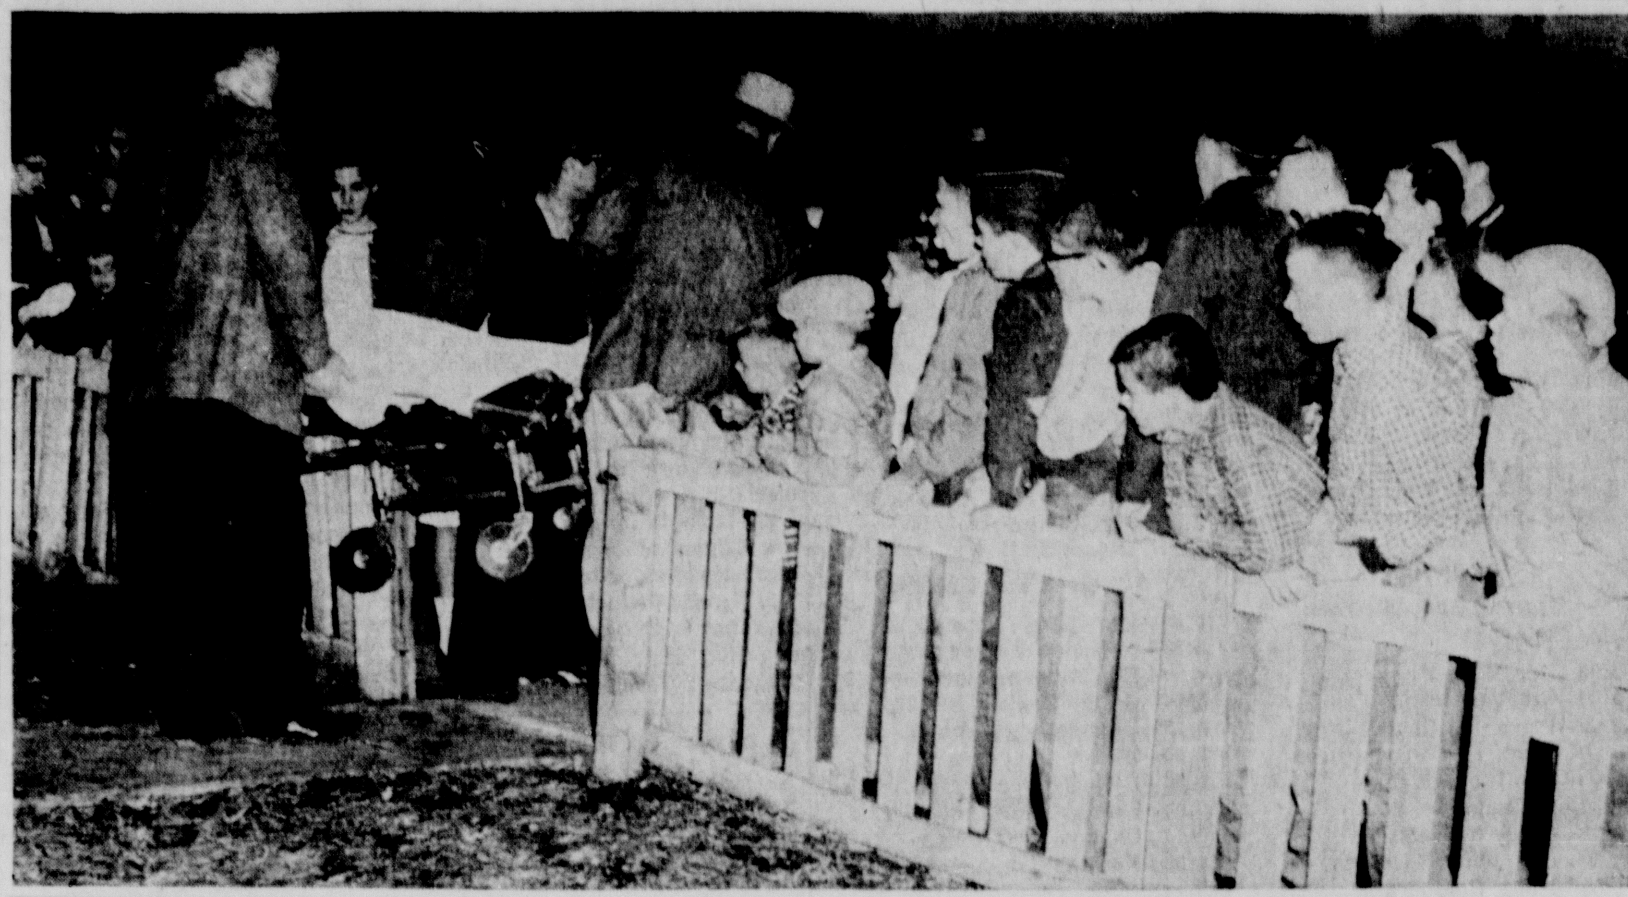

Miss Candace Malone, daughter of the speaker, will present the musical portion of the program with a piano solo, "The Revolutionary Etude," by Chopin. Miss Malone who is a sophomore at Harrisburg Township high school, has studied piano since she was four years old.

The social hour will be in charge of Mrs. Ray Altire, who will be assisted by Mrs. Clarence Bosket, Mrs. William Farley, and Mrs. Nelle Meyers.

A special invitation is made to ministers and others who are interested in Bible history to attend this meeting. All meetings of the Saline County Historical Society are open to the public and visitors are always welcome.

Music Revue Enjoyed At HTHS; Final Performance Tonight

The Music Revue held at HTHS Friday evening will be repeated tonight and from reports of the enthusiasm with which it was received by the large audience it is something that shouldn't be missed.

Students of the high school, parents, relatives, friends and former music students who have graduated and who formerly participated in some of the annual music revues, have placed their stamp of approval on this year's revue, "The Big Record." Marshall Cothran Jr., instrumental music director of the high school and of the band, is well pleased with the way the revue was received Friday evening.

Fire Damages Home In Dorris Heights

A house occupied by Arthur Thompson and owned by George Froman in Dorris Heights was damaged this morning from a fire caused by a kerosene stove in the kitchen.

Fire Chief L. G. Martin, who said the fire truck made the run at 7 a. m., stated that fire and water damage was confined to the kitchen and a screened in back porch and that there was some smoke damage to the rest of the house.

Rose Receives His Commission, Assumes Duties as County Clerk

J. E. "Pete" Rose received his commission as Saline county clerk late yesterday and this morning assumed his new duties at the court house.

Mr. Rose, who has had eight years' experience as county clerk, was named by the Saline County Board of Supervisors to the post at a special meeting Thursday morning to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Don B. Garrison. He will serve until December.

He declared that there would be a definite announcement on office personnel in the near future, that right now he had only a partial office force.

Mr. Rose said he learned that there had not been much done on tax extensions, that he hadn't yet got a lot of things located in the office, such as the rate sheets for most of the tax books.

Absentee balloting must be held up, he said, until rubber stamps bearing his signature arrive as it has been ruled that the ballots, already printed and bearing the signature of Clerk Garrison, must be restamped with Mr. Rose's signature. He said these stamps are being rushed and hoped to have them Monday.

He said he believed it would be best if he secured another absentee ballot box to deposit all ballots which will be voted absentee under him as county clerk. A number had voted absentee before the attorney general last Monday ordered the clerk's office closed following Mr. Garrison's death, until a new clerk took over.

Mr. Rose also stated that an audit is scheduled to start Monday in his office and that he would take care of only business that is necessary before the audit is completed.

"I realize I have a hard job ahead of me and it's going to take a lot of work before things get to running smoothly," he stated. "However, I assure you, things will be done as fast as possible."

Shirt Buying Spree

'Operation Shirt-Tail' at McLeansboro To Keep Town's Industry in Operation

MCLEANSBORO, Ill. (AP)—Citizens rallied up their new sleeves today to keep "operation shirt-tail" and the city's major industry in business.

Parents and employers turned out in force Friday in a shirt-buying spree to help the Elder Manufacturing Co. which folded last week because of a lack of orders.

The result: 65 of the 300 men laid off were called back to work and more were to return next week. "Operation shirt-tail" is the brain child of Ed Kirkpatrick, editor of the McLeansboro Times-Leader, and Bert Teffertiller, owner of a dry goods store that retails products from the Elder plant.

The newspaper urged residents to "show that we are behind our home town industry" by laying in a supply of shirts.

"Every man and boy in the county should be a Mark Twain and Tom Sawyer (the factory's brand names) shirt wearer," Teffertiller announced in a quarter-page ad.

Fatal Shooting By Roomer, Said Rejected Suitor

Apparently Follows Reading of Bible; Leaves Suicide Note

A Harrisburg widow and the man she wouldn't marry were shot to death late yesterday in her home and Coroner James Thornton called the double fatality a case of murder and suicide.

Killed instantly were Mrs. Alpha Smith, 56, of 114 West Virginia street, and her roomer and rejected suitor, Noble Beers, believed also in his mid-fifties.

The shooting apparently followed the reading of the 23rd Psalm by Beers, who according to a suicide note had planned to kill only himself.

First officers to arrive at the neat bungalow in north Harrisburg were City Policemen Pat Atkinson and Link Rann.

Atkinson said at 5:10 p. m. he received a phone call from a woman which said a woman had been shot at 114 West Virginia. He and Rann sped to the address to find the bodies.

Hears Shots

Mrs. Smith's son, Henry Mills of 113 East Homer street, and his wife, Fay, had been in the house just before the shooting and were outside helping Beers to get his belongings in his automobile because Mrs. Smith had asked him to move. Beers had been threatening her, both Mills and Police Chief Ross Lane stated.

The son said that he and his wife accompanied his mother to the house late yesterday to help Beers move out and that when they arrived the man had been reading the Bible and was calm and non-belligerent. When officers arrived they found a Bible opened to the 23rd Psalm, on a small table in the living room.

Mills said he was in the back yard after having put the first load of belongings in Beers' car when he heard three shots. Inside he saw the two bodies on the floor.

Sees Struggle

Coroner Thornton said he questioned Mrs. Mills, who stated she had been in the back yard and got to the back door just in time to see Beers and Mrs. Smith struggling in a small hallway from which one could enter the kitchen, bathroom, living room and one of the two bedrooms. She said Beers had a gun in his hand and Mrs. Smith had grabbed his wrist, holding the pistol up over her head.

She said she yelled for her husband not to go into the house, then ran to a grocery store at Virginia and Jackson streets, nearly a half block away, and called police. She heard the shots en route to the store.

Police officers and the coroner found Mrs. Smith lying in the kitchen, her feet near the small hallway, and Beers lying back the other way.

Items of Agricultural Interest

Farm Problem: Using Our Great Crop Abundance

URBANA—Attempts to support prices have brought both the government and farmers increasing trouble. H. G. Halcrow, head of the department of agricultural economics at the University of Illinois, told Farm and Home Festival visitors here Friday.

The farm problem of the United States is one of adequately using our great abundance of food and other farm products, Halcrow stated. He said that farm production increases come easily and farm prices are often too low. Farm incomes generally average below those outside of agriculture.

Halcrow admitted that the answer to providing favorable farm incomes while maintaining and increasing our blessings of abundance is not simple. However, he listed these proposed methods:

1. Adjust farm units to a size that will match our latest modern farming practices.
2. Conserve the soil for future needs.
3. Expand foreign trade.
4. Expand domestic markets for agricultural products.
5. Broaden educational opportunities for farm youth so that they can find their best place in our present-day society.

Dwarf Hybrids Stand Better, Yield Is Less

URBANA — Dwarf hybrid corn tested by University of Illinois corn breeders has shown the outstanding ability to remain standing in the field while as much as 50 per cent of the normal hybrids have fallen over.

Earl Leng, who has done much of the dwarf testing, told a large audience at the Farm and Home Festival here Friday that the best dwarf hybrids tested so far have averaged about 10 per cent less yield than normal hybrids.

The dwarf hybrids, under study since 1948, range four to seven feet high with ears 10 to 30 inches above the ground. Extensive testing programs are planned for the next few years to see whether production of commercial dwarf corn is

Homemakers Must Keep Abreast of Changing Foods

URBANA—Now that more and more homemakers are working outside the home each year, they must get acquainted not only with the working world, but with the changing world of foods.

In a talk Friday at Farm and Home Festival, University of Illinois foods specialist Mrs. Pearl Janssen said that new food products and new preparation methods can whittle a homemaker's time in her kitchen.

Today's kitchen equipment comes to the homemaker's aid in simplifying many jobs. Use of electric mixer strikes out the "fold carefully by hand" in early recipes and inserts "combine ingredients with an electric mixer at low speed" instead. The mixer combines the ingredients just as well as folding them by hand, but it requires less time and energy.

Temperature-controlled burners on gas and electric ranges are in some cases replacing the double boiler. Use of electric skillets and deep-fat fryers gives more uniform results than can be obtained with either practical tests or guesswork. Thermometers for sugar cooking, for deep-fat frying and for meat cooking all give an exactness that is difficult to get otherwise.

Mrs. Janssen said homemakers must be alert to recognize steps they can cut out of many recipes. They often beat eggs unnecessarily and often overheat egg yolks until they are too stiff. Many times they can shorten preparation time by starting to prepare foods on top of the range and completing the cooking in the oven.

A University of Illinois veterinarian says that taking X-rays of calves between one and 10 days old is the best way to spot carriers of dwarf genes. X-rays show vertebral abnormalities characteristic of many dwarf animals.

possible and desirable, Leng reported.

G. E. Pickard, University agricultural engineer, reported that, with dwarf yields approaching normal hybrid yields, research has been started on harvesting methods using different types of machinery. Pull-type and self-propelled pickers and two types of combine attachments produced encouraging results in 1957 harvest tests.

(A round-up of the week's work, activities, and observations at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbs in southern Illinois, prepared by H. A. Cate).

Shearing School

Fledgling shearers will be at work on the Station flock on April 8, 9, 10 and 11. These are the dates for the annual shearing school. Beginners will learn how to remove a fleece in one piece with minimum effort by following a set shearing procedure that makes handling sheep relatively easy. Students will also learn to care for a fleece, how to keep it clean and how to tie so that an attractive package will be presented to the wool grader.

Early Shearing

Jack Lewis, Station sheep researcher, recommends that all sheep having access to shelter be sheared early. Jack lists several advantages for shearing in late March or early April. Early shearing conflicts less with a busy spring work schedule and allows more time for properly packaging and caring for the wool crop.

Early shearing reduces maggot infestations in the flock which lower both the quality and the amount of wool and, in addition, cause general unthriftiness in the flock. Sheep sheared late after going on to pasture will carry heavy manure or dung loads that must be separated from the fleece, causing extra work and loss.

Using Native Ladino Clover Seed?

Ladino clover is a close cousin of the common white clover that grows as a native plant in mid-western pastures. White clover is much smaller and therefore much less productive than its giant relative. Since white clover is native, seed from locally produced Ladino will probably contain a high percentage of white clover seed. So, for your clover seedlings this spring, buy only certified Ladino seed produced in white clover free areas. Such areas are found in the irrigated sections of the west and northwest.

To Feed on Pasture or in Drylot?

Your decision to feed your steers on pasture or to delay feeding until winter after a full season of grazing will depend on a number of things. Factors that will influence your decision are whether or not your steers are now partly fat, how much pasture you have, what the price of corn is this summer, what the market outlook is and how much labor is available at the different seasons.

Yearling steers on the Station wintered on roughage only for normal growth gains have been fed both ways, on pasture and in drylot after pasture. Steers in both groups were fed for 100 to 110 days. The pasture-fed steers were started on feed about mid-August and marketed in late November. The drylot steers were grazed a full season and started on feed in November, going to market in mid-February.

Here are the results: The drylot steers weighed 1,050 pounds at marketing; the pasture-fed steers, 925. Drylot steers while on feed gained about 12 per cent faster. Corn required for both was about 25 bushels per head. About 100 pounds more pasture gain was obtained on steers fed in drylot after November 1. We hope these figures will help you decide your feeding program.

Farm Census Begins Monday

SPRINGFIELD @—The 21st annual farm census in Illinois will begin Monday in connection with the yearly assessment of farm property.

The farm census data is gathered by township assessors and their deputies in the course of their visits to each farm in the state to assess personal property and real estate.

About 1,630 assessors participate in the assessment and farm census each year. The material gathered for the farm census is turned over to county clerks and finally to the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service here.

The farm data collected deals largely with land use. It does not include questions about price or crop production.
Farmers are required by law to answer questions asked by the farm census takers, but the data is confidential and may not be used for tax purposes.

Mrs. Alpha Smith, Noble Beers Fatally Shot

er way, his body in the bedroom and his feet in the hallway. The pistol, a powerful German automatic, was lying near the bathroom door on some of Beers' clothing which was to be taken out to his car. The bodies and the pistol were not far from each other.

Officers said Mrs. Smith had been shot in the forehead and back, that Beers had been shot in the head. Death was instant, Tiornton stated.

Find Suicide Note

A suicide note was found in Beers' wallet, the coroner stated. He said it indicated he was only going to take his own life. It also told how he wanted his property and money disposed of. It was learned that Beers' wife divorced him in Williamson county circuit court about six months ago, that he has grown children.

The suicide note, held by Police Chief Ross Lane, was dated at noon yesterday. It told Mrs. Smith to go on back to California like she'd planned and to have them put his body wherever anybody pleased.

Mrs. Smith's son said that Beers had threatened his mother on a number of occasions, that Beers wanted to marry her and she always refused.

Harrisburg Police Chief Ross Lane said Mrs. Smith contacted him around noon yesterday saying that Beers had been threatening her. Lane said he told her to stay away from Beers, to go to the state's attorney this morning and get something done. The court house was closed yesterday afternoon for the funeral of County Clerk Don B. Garrison.

Lane said Mrs. Smith and Beers had had trouble for some time. Last fall, when Beers was rooming there, he said, they had trouble and Mrs. Smith locked up her house and went to California. In February she returned. Lane said, and Beers moved in again.

A large crowd of bystanders was on hand outside as officers made their investigation. Officers said they found five empty cartridges and three unfired shells in the pistol. They also found where bullets had entered the wall in two or three places and where one bullet had penetrated the front door, embedding itself in the home of Carl Wasson, across the street.

Beers was from Corinth township in Williamson county, it was learned. He was a cutting machine helper employed at Freeman No. 4 mine a mile and a half north of Pittsburg in Williamson county since August, 1951. He was scheduled to work on the night shift yesterday starting at 4 p. m. but did not show up, a mine official stated.

Mrs. Smith was the widow of Harold Smith, killed in a mine explosion at Peabody 47 at Harco in 1941.

Coroner Thornton said an inquest into the death would be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the Saline county court house.

The bodies were moved last night to the Turner funeral home in Harrisburg until the funeral at 2 p. m. Monday in the chapel there. Burial will be in the Sunset Hill cemetery.

Salvation Army To Begin Spiritual Campaign Sunday

The Salvation Army will begin an intensive spiritual campaign, "Christ the Answer," on Palm Sunday at the local corps in Harrisburg, Lt. Millie Wallace, commanding officer, announced today.

Lt. Wallace said that the corps will join more than 325 other corps and divisions throughout the Central territory in conducting the six-week campaign. The 11 states comprising the territory are Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

The "call to arms" was issued by Commissioner Claude E. Bates, central territorial commander, from his Chicago headquarters. He asked Salvationists everywhere to "prepare for an all-out effort to win souls with the great remedy for all the world's ills — 'Christ—the Answer.'"

Among the objectives planned throughout the territory are intensive one-week visitation drives in which soldiers will canvass their corps areas, a week of open air meetings, special evangelistic services, and organized prayer meetings in the homes of Salvationists.

During Holy Week, special religious meetings will be held nightly at each corps in the territory. This week also will be observed as the annual "Week of Self-Denial and Prayer." During this period contributions will be raised for the Army's missionary work, and officers and soldiers turn in the funds they have saved by abstaining from "luxury" during the Lenten season.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Leslie Robert who passed away March 29, 1957:
We mourned for him in silence,
No eyes can see us weep,
But many a silent tear is shed
While others are asleep.

God knows how much I miss him
Never shall his memory fade;
Loving thoughts shall ever wander
To the spot where he is laid.

In our home he is fondly remembered,
Sweet memories cling to his name;
Those who loved him in life sincerely,
Still love him in death just the same.

Our thoughts go wandering when daylight fades,
To the land of long ago,
And memory paints the scenes of old
In the gold of the twilight glow.
We seem to see in the soft, dim light

A face we love the best,
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far-off west.

Our lips cannot tell how we miss him,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
God alone knows how we miss him,
In a home that is lonesome today.

The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so
well;
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.

His loving face we hope to see again,
Though the days have passed away;
Sleep on, dear one, and take your rest,
They miss you most who loved
you best.

I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own;
And day by day I miss him more,
As I walk through life alone.

Sadly missed by his wife, children and grandchildren. *230-1

Sunday School Lesson

By Dr. Archie E. Brown
Pastor First Baptist Church
Vandalia, Ill.

'The Church Ordinances'

Romans 6:3-4; I Cor. 10:14-22
GOLDEN TEXT: "Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread
and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord."
(I Cor. 11:27).

INTRODUCTION — In this lesson we study the ordinances
Jesus left for his church to observe. These two ordinances are baptism and the Lord's Supper.
These are sacred to the true believers in Jesus Christ. Each ordinance is full of meaning for the follower of Christ.

Last week, and the week before, we studied world missions, and home evangelism. Now,
when people are won to Christ,
the first thing they should do to please God is to follow our Lord in beautiful baptism. After that they should participate in the observance of the Lord's Supper whenever it is offered in their church.

Many disputes have arisen over these two ordinances through the years. Because of these disputes, one is led to believe that for many people they have lost their real meaning. Let us consider these ordinances now.

I BAPTISM (Romans 6:3-4)

It was our privilege recently to be in Rome, Italy. We visited many of the large cathedrals.
Some of these date back to the early centuries after Christ. We were shown in these cathedrals the large baptismal pools where the early Christians were baptized. Many "candidates" could be led down into the water at one time, and there was room in the baptistry for several pastors to perform the ordinance of baptism at one time.

Baptism is often said to be "an outward symbol of inward grace."
That means that baptism is not a means of salvation, but it is a testimony to all the world that one has already been saved.

When one has been saved by the "grace of God through faith," (Eph. 2:8), he should be baptized. This is an act of obedience.

It is a picture of the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus.
When the "candidate" is placed under the water, that is a picture of the death and burial of Jesus.
When the candidate is brought up out of the water, that is a picture of the resurrection of Jesus.

It means more. It is a picture to all the world that the "candidate" has died to sin. The old sinful person he once was is dead and buried, and he is now a new creature in Christ Jesus, raised to walk in a new kind of life.
"In newness of life." Here is the real reason to be found in baptism. It is Christ who gives the new life. Baptism is a symbol or picture of how it takes place.

II THE LORD'S SUPPER

(I Cor. 10:14-22)

The Lord's Supper is so called because our Lord instituted it in the Upper Room at the close of the Passover Feast on Thursday evening before He was crucified on Friday.

The Lord's Supper, also, is symbolical. It pictures the broken body and the shed blood; the death of Christ. "As oft as ye do this, ye do it in remembrance of me," said Jesus.

It is the Lord's Supper. It is His Table. He is the one who does the inviting to the Table. He is the one who gives the instructions concerning whom shall be guests at the Table.

Each person is to "examine his own heart." No person should take of the Lord's Supper unworthily. This does not mean that one must be perfect before coming to His table. It does mean that he should have the right attitude toward God and his brethren. He should have a forgiving spirit, even as God has forgiven him. If one comes in any other attitude he brings God's judgment down upon himself.

CONCLUSION — Baptism and the Lord's Supper are both beautiful and solemn ordinances. If rendered in the right spirit and atmosphere, all who witness each

I sat on the sands, watching the palm trees, the city silhouetted against the sky.
And as I did, suddenly the city wasn't there any more. I saw only the palms.

It was like being transported to another time and place. I felt as if I were in old Jerusalem. It was the day when He was entering the city, and His devoted followers had strewn palm leaves in His path. In church, that morning, our minister had told us the story of Palm Sunday. Now I realized how much this message meant to me.

Watching the palms, I realized that all of us need help in understanding life's basic truths. We find that help in the Church.
Then we can dwell upon what we have learned until it has full meaning for us...
as Palm Sunday, now, has for me.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1)
For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ordinance will go away blessed.
In the New Testament, baptism always precedes the Lord's Supper. Those who partake of the Lord's Supper are those who have already followed the Lord in beautiful baptism. Hearts are always strangely warmed by the observance of these church ordinances, given to the church
by our Lord; then the church controls the observances in its own local church body.

If you are a Christian and a church member, you should avail yourself of the opportunity of observing the Lord's Supper every time it is observed by your church family.

$5,002 Gross Receipts for Cage Sectional Tourney Held Here

The financial report of the Harrisburg sectional basketball tournament, released today by HTHS Principal Eltis Henson, the tournament manager, revealed gross receipts of $5,002.75 for the three nights.

Of this amount $1,450.69 remains with the host school, but out of this come all expenses including the fees to the referees. It was estimated that the school will get somewhere around $1,000 when all expenses are counted.

Cost of the two referees alone was $214.80. Each official got $67.50 for officiating three nights. In addition James McCoskey got $21 for expenses for coming from Murphysboro and Joe Przada $58.80 for coming from East St. Louis.

Big night was the evening of the finals between West Frankfort and Mount Vernon, when the paid attendance was 3,465. An estimated 3,700 were in the gym, the remainder chiefly being teams, cheer leaders, ushers, and other help, coaches, newspapermen, photographers, and police and fire officials.

Paid attendance the first night, when Mount Vernon played Metropolis, was 1,011. The second night, when Carrier Mills met West Frankfort, the paid attendance was 2,251.

Chuck Klein, Ex-Major League Slugger, Dies

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Funeral services will be held Tuesday for Charles H. (Chuck) Klein, who left his native Indianapolis 31 years ago to become one of baseball's greatest sluggers and returned home to die in virtual obscurity.

Klein, 52, was found dead by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Klein, Friday in the bathroom of his home, where he had lived since he returned to Indianapolis as a semi-invalid in 1947.

Dr. E. F. Boggs diagnosed the cause of death as leakage at the base of Klein's brain, possibly traceable to heavy drinking. Dr. Boggs had attempted to nurse Klein back to health during the last 10 years.

The six-foot, 185-pound Klein was one of the National League's greatest sluggers and compiled a 17 year .320 batting average. He was one of five modern players to hit four homers in a game.

Klein had a few good years with the Chicago Cubs and spent one season with the Pittsburgh Pirates but had all his great years with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Born Oct. 7, 1905, in Indianapolis, Klein was purchased by the Phillies for $7,500 in 1928 after a year and a half with Evansville in the Three I League and Fort Wayne in the Central League. In 64 games with the Phillies that year, he batted .360 and smashed 11 homers.

His career total of 300 home runs has been topped by only 12 players in the games' history.

Klein was acquired by the Cubs for three players and an estimated $65,000 in 1934 but was never the same slugger as he had been and was returned to Philadelphia in 1936. Two months later he hit four home runs in a 10-inning game against the Pirates.

Lou Gehrig, who did it before him, and Pat Seerey, Gil Hodges and Joe Adcock, who did it after him, are the only other modern players who hit four homers in a single game.

Klein finally quit baseball after hitting only .143 for the Phillies in 1944. He held a scouting job with the Boston Braves in 1946 but the next year returned as a semi-invalid to Indianapolis.

Klein was divorced in 1956 after 20 years of marriage. His brother, Edward, said Friday he is the only blood relative still surviving. Klein said he had lost contact with Chuck's ex-wife.

Marshall Wins Chicago Title

CHICAGO (AP)—The state champion Marshall basketball team added to its laurel Friday night with a 67-63 victory over De LaSalle for the Chicago High School basketball title.

The Commandos chalked up their 31st straight victory in besting De LaSalle, champions of the Chicago Catholic High School League.

Marshall led, 36-32, at the half and held the advantage until the last two minutes of play, when the Meteors mounted a strong but unsuccessful effort.

Bob Jones captured scoring honors for Marshall with 22 points. Bob Warnock, Ron Weigand and Bernie Geers dumped in 15 points each for De LaSalle.

Bob Rush First Braves' Hurler to Go Route in 11-2 Win Over White Sox

By United Press

Every day in every way it looks more like the Milwaukee Braves and Pittsburgh Pirates struck gold in their off-season deals for Bob Rush and Ted Kluszewski.

The Braves claimed they got "pennant insurance" when they obtained Rush from the Chicago Cubs and that's exactly what the towering righthander has looked like this spring. He became the first Milwaukee pitcher to go nine innings when he beat the Chicago White Sox, 11-2, Friday and now has yielded just four runs in 20 innings of Grapefruit league pitching.

The Pirates admitted they were gambling when they acquired the ailing Kluszewski from Cincinnati but claimed a healthy "Kloo" could lift them into the first division. And, certainly Ted never looked healthier than he did Friday when he smashed two homers and a single in an 8-7 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. Kluszewski's spring batting average is .857 with six hits in seven tries.

Sox Whip Redlegs

The Boston Red Sox—still playing without Ted Williams—scored their fifth straight victory and 11th in 15 games when they beat the Redlegs, 8-5. Frank Robinson homered for the Redlegs.

In other games, the Washington Senators beat the New York Yankees, 6-4; the Baltimore Orioles outslugged the Chicago Cubs, 14-7; the Detroit Tigers edged the Los Angeles Dodgers, 12-11; the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2, and the Cleveland Indians beat the San Francisco Giants, 9-8.

Whitey Herzog hit his second homer of the game with one on in the ninth inning as the Senators handed the Yankees their 10th loss in 19 games.

Harshman Hits Homer

Pitcher Jack Harshman hit a three-run homer and a single and Al Pilarcik had three hits to lead Baltimore's 17-hit attack on four Cub pitchers. Billy Martin, who had singled for his fourth hit of the game, scored the winning run from third base for the Tigers, who gained their second win in two weeks.

Stan Musial and Joe Cunningham hit homers but rookie infielder Benny Valenzuela's ninth-inning double knocked in the winning run for the Cardinals in their victory over Kansas City.

Bob Lemon, ex-ace of the Cleveland staff, was bombed for nine hits in three innings but the Indians rallied to down the Giants on ninth-inning hits by Fred Hatfield and Mickey Vernon. Hank Sauer homered for the Giants and rookie Billy Moran homered for Cleveland.
